LAST WATER

CASE SETTLED

entirely the taking and use of the waters of Orange brook, then the said city shall have a right to take waters from the Fall branch, as they formerly did by the pipes then established and now in existence on Fall branch, and not otherwise.

Meaning that if the city takes and uses all of the waters of Orange brook, so called, they shall have no right to take any waters of Fall branch at said old intake.

And we hereby quit-claim and give up to said city the right to take all of the aforesaid waters under the conditions aforesaid for all purposes, whether for domestic, sanitary, fire protection, or for manufacturing or mechanical purposes of every kind and nature. Meaning to convey the waters aforesaid under the conditions aforesaid, for all purposes, and this is whether said waters are returned to the said Stevens branch above our said plant or below it, and whether used above said plant or below it.

And as a part consideration of this deed, said grantors hereby acknowledge full satisfaction of all past or future claims which it has or may have against the said city of Barre or the Barre Water company for the use of said waters for all purposes in the past and release hereby all injunctions that it now has against the said city of Barre, or the Barre Water company, for the use of said waters or any of them, and any injunction that may be held in favor of our predecessors, the partnership known as Smith, Whitcomb & Cook, are likewise released and satisfied, subject, however, to the conditions above specified as to the waters of Fall branch in connection with the waters of Orange brook.

Meaning hereby to convey to the said city of Barre the use of all waters for the purposes above specified and said Stevens branch, Peck pond brook, Martin brook, Little Martin brook, Orange brook and also Fall branch, so far as the capacity said city can now take with its present pipes, provided that said city abandons the use of the waters of said Orange brook aforesaid, and all claims against said city for pumping water from the Stevens branch in said Stevens brook and actions said grantors and the co-partnership of Smith, Whitcomb & Cook which either of them now have or may have for the use of said waters above described are hereby discontinued without costs to the grantors.

EAST BARRE.

The schools here close this week for the summer vacation.

Several from here are attending the commencement exercises of the high school in Barre this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hotelins and Mr. and Mrs. James Milne of Barre, Bertha Payne, Clinton Cutler, George R. Milne and John Foss of Plainfield, are spending a few days fishing at White Camp, Groton pond.
